

A Loving Wind

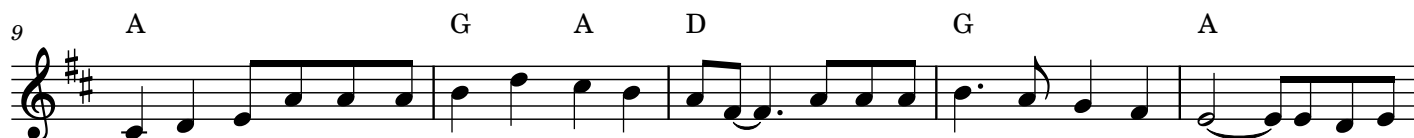

C.Eckart

1. What can we give the birds for sing-ing? how can we help the flow-ers
2. Who's rich e-nough to buy a bird-song? the time to list - en, all it 3. Though we might fill our hands with beau-ty A flow-er's love - ly left a - grow? what words can we sing up to hea-ven to share our love for sun and costs too ma - ny feel they can't aff - ord it let's help them hear what they have

- lone what we poss-ess is somehow les-ser once it is ta - ken from its rain and snow we want to sing with all cre - a-tion join voi-ces when the day be - gins so to the lost we wake and list - en to cre - a-tion en-rich us when each day be - gins a gift for home so let us love what lasts for - e-ver the joy a fa - ding rain-bow brings and let our furth-est bird and flo - o - o - wer our song will be a lov - ing wind a lov - ing wind a lov - ing ev' - ry heart that's list - e - e - ning the mu - sic of a lov - ing wind a lov - ing wind a lov - ing treasure be our me - mo - o - ries car - ried on a lov - ing wind a lov - ing wind a lov - ing wind o - ur voi - ces to th - e earth shall be a lov - ing wind wind i - its there for each o - one list - e - ning a lov - ing wind wind le - ets keep what's pre - cio - ous safe in - side a lov - ing wind